

KOSOVO

COMPROMISE 2007

Your daily-updated analyses, charts and solution plug-ins for the Kosovo crisis.

July 23, 2008

Unmik and Belgrade agree to start talks on reconfiguration

KosovoCompromise Staff

Serbian officials agreed with Unmik chief Lamberto Zannier on Wednesday to begin talks on the reconfiguration of the UN mission.

Zannier told Serbia's Minister for Kosovo Goran Bogdanovic and Foreign Minister Vuk Jeremic that the UN mission in Kosovo will work on the basis of full status neutrality, and exclusively under the mandate of UN Resolution 1244.

Bogdanovic and Jeremic said the reconfiguration must receive an approval from the UN Security Council.

They also reiterated Serbia's dissatisfaction with the unilateral decision of UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-Moon to start the reconfiguration without the UN SC decision.

During the talks, a particular accent was put on the work of the police and judiciary in Kosovo.