

KOSOVO

COMPROMISE 2007

Your daily-updated analyses, charts and solution plug-ins for the Kosovo crisis.

July 24, 2008

Zannier and Jeremic at UN Security Council session on Kosovo on Friday

KosovoCompromise Staff

Unmik chief Lamberto Zannier and Serbian Foreign Minister Vuk Jeremic will participate at the Friday UN Security Council session on Kosovo, during which the body will evaluate the latest report by the UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-Moon.

Serbia's foreign ministry said Jeremic will "represent Serbia's interests on Kosovo which concern the reconfiguration of the international civilian presence in Serbia's southern province, and which is disputable for Serbia without an appropriate decision of the top UN body".

The debate will be dedicated to the quarterly report on UN Secretary General Ban Ki-moon, in which he practically gave the green light to his envoy Zannier to start with the process of reconfiguration of UNMIK.