KosovoCompromise Staff

Serbia's Minister for Kosovo Goran Bogdanovic opened on Wednesday in Gracanica, central Kosovo, the headquarters of Serbia's Coordination Centre for Kosovo.

The opening of the Coordination Centre headquarters in Gracanica represents a realization of the plan of the Ministry for Kosovo to form a branch office of this body in Kosovo, which will help make this Serbian government department closer to the Kosovo Serbs.

Bogdanovic also announced he will begin consultations on Thursday with parliamentary groups in the Serbian Assembly on the draft resolution on Serbia's state policy on Kosovo.
