KFOR: Delays in KSF commander selection

KosovoCompromise Staff

KFOR spokesperson Adriano Graziani said in Pristina on Thursday that there are some delays in appointment of a commander of the Kosovo Security Force (KSF), but failed to reply about whether Admiral Mark P. Fitzgerald set during his last week's visit to Kosovo a deadline to institution representatives for the appointment.

Graziani said at a news conference that the security situation in Kosovo is peaceful, while KFOR is oriented to carry out its mission within the UN Security Council Resolution 1244.

He said that the process of training the KSF members would start within 30 days from the appointment of a commander.

Meanwhile, in Ljubljana, the Slovenian government announced that it will donate 30,000 euros to a NATO fund which will support the formation of KSF.
